HFA's 2007 teleconference will explore the most current theoretical perspectives on loss and grief as experienced by persons throughout a life-limiting illness and by survivors after the death. The panel will focus on areas where understandings of grief have been challenged. The program will be useful to a range of professionals who provide bereavement counseling or work with the bereaved. The information will also be helpful to individuals who offer education on loss, grief, dying or death.

CE approved for nurses, social workers, counselors, funeral directors, clergy, psychologists, physicians, EMS personnel, EAP's and nursing home administrators.
Processing and payment through HFA. $25 online, $35 by mail

Email Your Questions Now for the Live Program Teleconference site coordinators and/or attendees are encouraged to email their grief-related questions for the Living with Grief panelists to griefquestions@hospicefoundation.org. Questions will be accepted until March 1. Selected questions will be posed to panelists by the moderator. Names and organizations will be used unless otherwise specified. Please keep your questions limited to the subject of grief. There will not be a call-in number during the teleconference in an effort to expand panel discussion time.
