There is an opening for a Service Line Quality Improvement Coordinator at Nationwide Children’s Hospital (Columbus, OH). The Quality Improvement department has a mixture of clinicians and engineers focused on clinical quality and patient safety projects. The applicant will primarily work with a selected service line and their respective nursing and physician leadership to improve associated quality and safety metrics.

The job posting is listed below. You must apply online:

http://www.nationwidechildrens.org/find-a-job

GENERAL SUMMARY

Works in conjunction with service line or unit leadership to develop, implement and coordinate effective systems to evaluate and improve patient outcomes and quality care; provides leadership in the areas of quality improvement and supports the mission of NCH by leading the performance improvements linked to NCH’s strategic plan.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

1. Bachelors in health related field or Masters preferred. CPHQ or other quality certification preferred.
2. Three-Five years experience in the quality improvement field preferred.
3. Excellent interpersonal and organizational skills necessary to present and communicate important information effectively to all levels of hospital staff.
4. Proficient in the use of a personal computer especially excel, word, power point and access.
5. Demonstrates experience in presentation skills and the ability to analyze and interpret statistical data.
6. Experience with the IHI model for improvement preferred. Experience with other forms of quality improvement methods including but not limited to lean/six sigma, ISO 9000 or other advanced improvement training valuable as well.

MINIMUM PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS

1. Talking in person/on the phone (34-66%)
2. Standing/Walking (34-66%)
3. Typing on a keyboard (34-66%)

Todd Schneider
Quality Improvement Coordinator
Nationwide Children's Hospital
Phone: 614-722-5095
todd.schneider@nationwidechildrens.org