ABOUT THE COMMUNITY

Lewistown is an agricultural community located at the geographic center of Montana in the vast Judith Basin. The town features many well-preserved historic businesses and homes. Lewistown is located about 100 miles to the east of Great Falls on US Highway 200. Billings, MT is 120 miles to the south, on US Highway 87. Lewistown is part of Fergus County, Montana which has a population of 12,000 people. Lewistown itself has a population of 6300 people.

The town sits in a very scenic setting. The Judith Mountains are located just to the north and east of town. The Big Snowy Mountains, which are a very scenic mountain range and rise well above timberline, are located just 20 miles south of town. And, about 40 miles southwest of town, the Little Belt Mountains rise up off the valley floor.

The downtown area is clean and historic, the streets are tree-lined and the location of Lewistown is excellent for anyone who enjoys outdoor activities. One of the biggest draws to the area is the excellent outdoor recreation that exists just outside of town. The angler will find excellent fishing in Big Spring Creek, an absolutely gorgeous and restored little river that also supplies Lewistown with its entire water supply. Other nearby fishing holes includes the Judith River, Ackley Lake and Crystal Lake. The hunter will find excellent habitat around Lewistown for mule deer, whitetail deer, elk and game birds.
